

SaveHosting.io – Privacy Policy

Last Modified: , 2025

1. Introduction

The website located at SaveHosting.io (this “Website”) is owned and operated by Node Solutions AI LLC (“Company,” “we,” “our,” or “us”). We respect your privacy and are committed to protecting it through this Privacy Policy (this “Policy”).

This Policy describes the types of information we may collect from you or that you may provide to us, and our practices for collecting, using, maintaining, protecting, and disclosing that information.

This Policy applies to information collected:

- On this Website and on other Company-controlled websites that link to this Policy.
- Through email, text, or other electronic communications between you and us.
- Through mobile or desktop applications you download from our sites.
- Through the hosting and technology services we provide to you (the “Services”).
- When you interact with our applications or advertising on third-party websites and services, if those applications or advertising link to this Policy.

This Policy does not apply to:

- Information collected offline or through other websites operated by us that do not link to this Policy.
- Information collected by third parties that may be linked to or accessible from our Website or Services.

By accessing or using our Website or Services, you agree to this Policy. If you do not agree, you should not use our Website or Services. We may update this Policy from time to time (see Section 14 below). Continued use after changes are posted constitutes acceptance of the revised Policy.

2. Children’s Privacy

Our Website and Services are not directed to children under the age of eighteen (18). No one under that age may provide any information to or through our Website or Services. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 18. If we learn we have collected personal information from a minor without verified parental consent, we will delete it.

If you believe we may have information from or about a child under 18, please contact us at support@nodesolutions.ai.

California residents under 16 may have additional rights regarding the sale of their personal information (see Section 11).

3. Information We Collect

We may collect several categories of information from and about you, including:

- Identifiers: such as your name, address, email, phone number, and payment details (“personal information”).
- Commercial information: transaction details between you and Node Solutions LLC.
- Technical information: about your internet connection, device, and usage (IP address, browser type, operating system).
- Online activity: information about your browsing behavior and interactions with our Website or Services.
- Information you voluntarily provide: through forms, surveys, correspondence, or User Contributions (defined below).

We collect information:

- Directly from you when you provide it.
- Automatically as you use our Website or Services (see Section 5 below).
- From third parties, such as business partners or application providers.

4. Information You Provide

You may provide information directly, including:

- Information entered in forms when registering an account, subscribing, or contacting support.
- Records of correspondence, including your email address.
- Responses to surveys for research or product improvement.
- Transactional and billing information.
- Content you choose to post publicly on our Website or Services (“User Contributions”).

User Contributions are posted at your own risk. While we may offer settings to limit access, no security measure is perfect. We cannot control actions of third parties who may access your contributions.

5. Automatic Data Collection

As you navigate our Website or Services, we may use automatic data collection technologies to gather information about your equipment, browsing behavior, and usage patterns. This may include:

- Details of visits (traffic data, location, logs, pages accessed).
- Information about your device and internet connection (IP address, browser type, operating system).
- Online activity over time and across third-party sites (“behavioral tracking”).

Technologies used may include:

- Cookies: small files stored on your device. You may refuse cookies in your browser settings, but some parts of the Website may not function properly.
- Web Beacons/Pixels: small electronic files that record Website usage statistics, email interactions, and system integrity.

6. Third-Party Data and Tracking

We may receive information about you from third-party services (e.g., app stores, social networks) if you access our Services through them.

Some Website content and advertising may be served by third parties, including ad networks and content providers. These parties may use cookies, web beacons, or similar tools to collect information about you, including across websites and online services, to deliver targeted advertising.

We do not control third-party tracking technologies. If you have questions about targeted advertising or wish to opt-out, contact the responsible provider or review the choices outlined in Section 9.

7. How We Use Information

We may use collected information to:

- Provide, maintain, and improve our Services.
- Present Website content and personalize user experiences.
- Manage accounts and provide support.
- Process transactions and billing.
- Research and analyze usage for business development.
- Enforce our rights and fulfill contractual obligations.
- Notify you of updates or policy changes.
- Enable participation in interactive features.
- Deliver relevant marketing and advertising.

- Fulfill any other purpose disclosed at collection or with your consent.

8. Disclosure of Information

We may disclose aggregated, non-identifiable information without restriction. We may disclose personal information:

- To subsidiaries, affiliates, and contractors who support our business.
- To buyers or successors in the event of merger, divestiture, or sale of assets.
- To fulfill the purpose for which you provided it.
- With your consent or as otherwise disclosed at the time of collection.

We may also disclose personal information:

- To comply with legal obligations or government requests.
- To enforce rights and agreements, including billing and collection.
- To protect Company, customers, or others from fraud, security threats, or harm.

9. Choices About Use and Disclosure

We provide options to manage your personal information:

- Third-Party Advertising: You may opt-out of disclosure to unaffiliated third parties for promotional purposes by emailing support@nodesolutions.ai.
- Promotional Offers: You may opt-out of marketing communications from us by contacting us or using the unsubscribe link in promotional emails.
- Targeted Advertising: You may opt-out of behavioral advertising by contacting us or visiting opt-out tools provided by the Network Advertising Initiative (NAI).

State law and your browser settings may provide additional opt-out rights (see Section 11).

10. Accessing and Correcting Information

You may request access to, correction of, or deletion of personal information by emailing support@nodesolutions.ai. We cannot delete personal information except by also deleting your account. We may deny requests if required by law or if fulfilling them would result in inaccurate records.

Deleting User Contributions does not guarantee complete removal, as cached or archived copies may remain accessible.

11. State Privacy Rights

Certain states, including California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Indiana, Iowa, Montana, Oregon, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, and Virginia, provide residents with rights such as:

- Confirming whether we process personal information.
- Accessing, correcting, or deleting certain information.
- Data portability.
- Opting out of personal data processing for targeted advertising, sale, or profiling with significant effects.
- Restricting or requiring consent for processing sensitive personal data.

California residents have additional rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA/CPRA), including rights to disclosure, deletion, correction, and opt-out of data sales. California's "Shine the Light" law also permits residents to request disclosure of personal information shared for direct marketing.

Nevada residents may submit opt-out requests under Nevada Revised Statutes Chapter 603A by emailing support@nodesolutions.ai. We do not currently sell data triggering Nevada's opt-out requirements.

12. Data Security

We implement security measures to protect your personal information, including encryption, access controls, and monitoring. However, no method of transmission over the Internet is completely secure. Any transmission of personal information is at your own risk.

You are responsible for safeguarding your account credentials. Where a password is required, you must keep it confidential.

13. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Policy periodically to reflect changes in our practices or applicable laws. Updates will be posted with a revised "Last Modified" date. Significant changes may also be communicated via email or in-service notifications. Continued use of our Website or Services after updates constitutes acceptance.

14. Contact Information
